

Drinking Water

Drinking Water supplies in the vicinity of Red Hill continue to meet all federal drinking water standards.

Public Water Sources Near the Red Hill Underground Tanks

Public Drinking Water Source	Red Hill Shaft	Halawa Shaft	Moanalua Wells
Operator	U.S. Navy	Honolulu Board of Water Supply
Areas served by water source	Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam (exclusively)	Metropolitan Honolulu-Moanalua Valley to Hawaii Kai
Associated public water system	Joint Base Pearl Harbor-Hickam	Honolulu Windward- Pearl Harbor
Population served by system	65,230	630,266
Relative amount sources represent in the associated system	1 of 3 sources in system	Combined 25% of system
Within Federal and State Drinking Water Standards	Yes	Yes	Yes
Last date water source was sampled	July 24, 2017	October 26, 2017	July 5, 2017

The Safe Drinking Water Act requires testing for more than 90 contaminants including several petroleum-related contaminants, such as Benzene, Toluene, Ethylbenzene, Xylene and Polyaromatic hydrocarbons.

More information is available in the Consumer Confidence Reports published by the water system operators.

